Using an AmeriCorps Award to Pay for SOLO Wilderness Medicine Course Tuition & Sterling College's Professional Fees

Step 1

Student registers for SOLO's Wilderness Medicine course with SOLO Southeast by calling 828-366-7517. Applicable courses are Wilderness First Aid (WFA), Advanced Wilderness First Aid (AWFA), Wilderness First Responder (WFR), WFR Recert, Wilderness Module, Emergency Medical Technician, or Wilderness Emergency Medical Technician (WEMT).

Step 2

SOLO Southeast sends Letter of Course Enrollment Verification with the student's pertinent & verification information, to Barbara Stuart, Financial Office, and Laura Lea Berry, Registrar, Sterling College.

Step 3

Student contacts Barbara Stuart, Sterling College Financial Aid Director, at 802-586-7711, ext 3, or bstuart@sterlingcollege.edu, for information re: using their AmeriCorps Award. The AmeriCorps Award can be used for payment reimbursement for both the SOLO Wilderness Medicine course tuition and Sterling College's Professional Fees incurred for providing Official Transcript. (SOLO Wilderness Course Tuition + Sterling College Fees: $130/Credit + $15 to send transcript to student's college or university of choice, XXX.XX Total, to be released from your AmeriCorps Account to Sterling College, VT.) NOTE: Student is responsible for any difference between these fees and the amount in their AmeriCorps Fund.

Step 4

Student registers with Laura Lea Berry, Sterling College Registrar, at 802-586-7711, ext 6, or lberry@sterlingcollege.edu.

Step 5

After the course is over, SOLO Southeast, sends Final Course Grade to Laura Lea Berry, Sterling College Registrar. If student wants a transcript sent to a college or university of student's choice.

Step 6

Sterling College sends student's course tuition directly to SOLO Southeast, once the funds have been confirmed by Barb Stuart and are received by Sterling College from student's AmeriCorps account.

Please contact Laura Lea Berry, Sterling College Registrar, at 802-586-7711, ext 6, or Barbara Stuart, Sterling College Director of Financial Aid, ext 3, regarding any questions you may have.
